convincing the Ulstermen of the need act promptly and generously in ord not to hold up affairs of internation and world importance.

It is the general opinion here no that the whole problem of the conference was and is to find out what digree of concessions to Irish unity on the part of Ulster can induce the Sinn Fe to give up its separatistic position ar accept allegiance. What is now how is that the pressure which it is expectite Prime Minister will bear of Usar will cause here to offer some of two lines arrangement between the six coutles and the rest of Ireland.

Little Entente's taking action before the allied Ambaseadors can reach a final decision. The council has decided to tell the allied representatives in the Little Entente countries to recommend that those Powers suspend war prepairations, since the allied Powers were doing everything possible to dispose of the former Emperor, and since they hoped to be able to give guaranties against any repetition of his monarchical adventures.

New York Herald Bureau. } Paris, Oct. 29. } A terrible crime has been reported throne. No Government has volunteered asylum for the former monarch.

Consequently the council decided to-day that Charles and Empress Zita must remain on board the British monitor in the Danube River until a suitable place of exile can be found. The Island of Madeira has been suggested, but his removal there involves the assent of the Portuguese Government, which has been asked if this selection would be acceptable. No reply has yet been received.
